

SMALL TIME

INTRODUCING SMALL TIME

In a music industry climate that's ever-changing, and where a 'career' can mean so many things, committing to pursue music as an artist can be overwhelming. Small Time's mission is to help more quality, hard working early stage artists both define and achieve their goals. We also want to exist as go-to for more established artists by showcasing their music releases, live music events and so much more. We have an amazing, multi-faceted network & in-house team of videographers, photographers, art directors, audio engineers, producers etc. who together with our equipment & facilities can offer everything outlined in this document.

Small Time comprises four parts that together help early stage artists refine their product, define clear goals and an action plan and to get connected with relevant peers and people in the industry:

SMALL TIME BAR & PIZZA

Providing an accessible and warm place for musicians and music lovers to meet, work and generally hang out.

SMALL TIME PRODUCTIONS

Cost effectively creating or helping others create music and associated content to put out into the world.

SMALL TIME LIVE

Sharing Small Time with the broader musician and music loving community worldwide

ARTIST SUPPORT

Actively working to help artists gain confidence, clarity and achieve milestones through business planning & education and songwriting.

SMALL TIME PRODUCTIONS

Small Time Productions can be defined as cost effectively creating or helping others create music and associated content to put out into the world. All tailored to your budget, we can provide music recording & production, support the release of new music and/or produce music performance and related content as a service.

MUSIC PRODUCTION

You can record your next track, EP or album in our recording studio on at our first floor together with our producer James Seymour or you can bring in your own team if they are already assisting the artist.

Music production can include songwriting/workshopping songs, recording, mixing and/or mastering. See below for an indication of our pricing, please get in touch with us via hello@smalltimegroup.com to discuss further. If you decide to use our production services, we are always willing to help with career planning and a tailored action plan around your launch.

	FIRST TRACK	ADDITIONAL TRACKS	EP	ALBUM
PRODUCING/ TRACKING	800	700		Custom Pricing
MIXING	100	50
MASTERING	Upon request	Upon request
MIXING ONLY	300	200

MUSIC RELEASES

As well as offering music production, we also want to celebrate your next music release - as mentioned, this can be produced by us or otherwise. Small Time is a physical hub in Brunswick that exists to create experiences for artists and their community in order to reach a wider audience. Wherever the artist may be in their career, we can provide services tailored to the needs and wishes of the artist:

- Music video
- Release video & audio content (live performance, interview, story telling)
- Press shots
- New release live performance stream & listening parties

Our team will be happy to help with directions for music videos or you could host a listening party on the day of your album release at Small Time. The possibilities are endless and we are open to discuss your plans and assist in making it happen!

PREVIOUS CLIENTS

Due to the world being shut down, The Rolling Blackouts couldn't proceed their new album release tour. They chose to work with Small Time to release their new album 'Sideways To New Italy'. Over the course of three days, we recorded a number of live sets here at Small Time to release them through different channels around the world.

MUSIC PERFORMANCE SERVICES

Last but not least, we want to introduce you to the last part of what we consider Small Time Productions: the production of music performance and related content as a service.

Having an amazing team of videographers, photographers and audio engineers in our team, we can help you with your next event or idea, again completely tailored to your needs. Some of our previous clients were Delivered Live, The Corner Hotel and Euroa Music Festival.
